Mrs. Cornwell went to Justice Riley's office Sunday in a hysterical condition and related her story against Gill. She stated that he entered her home Sunday, grabbed and choked her and then broke up her furniture. He denies it.

THE IRWIN-LOCKWOOD COMPANY.

THE SIGN OF PURITY

If your grocer displays a Dewey's Best sign you may know he is interested in your welfare, because he keeps DEWEY'S BEST—the flour that is absolutely Pure.

In its manufacture we use extreme care in cleaning and grinding the wheat, and in separating the pure flour from the by-products. We use numerous machines to collect the dust, filter the air, and every precaution known to the milling art to keep impurities out of Dewey's Best. This has so improved its quality over other flours that we are very anxious that you try it. When you compare this elaborate and expensive system with that by which ordinary flour is made, you will understand why DEWEY'S BEST is in a class to itself. Yet the grocer's price to you is no higher than common flour. Ask for DEWEY'S BEST and accept no substitute. There is none so good.

SOCIAL

A very nice, quiet wedding took place on Saturday, Dec. 22, at 6:00 p. m., at the home of D. F. Matheny, at Glen Falls, when Ananias Casio and Elizabeth Matheny were made man and wife by the Rev. D. W. Cunningham, of the Stealey addition.

At the home of Mr. J. W. Gerrard Sunday Mr. Thomas L. Jarvis and Miss Ada V. Davis were married by the Rev. J. W. Gerrard. They drove there in a buggy and asked to be made man and wife, which request was quickly granted. It was as nice a wedding as had been in that section for a long time. May joy and comfort greet them along life's journey.

The Imperial Stock Company which has a week's engagement at the Grand opera house and is stopping at the Traders hotel, will have a Christmas tree in the hotel parlor and also a neat little banquet at the hotel. There are sixteen members of the company and all will take part in the commemoration.

CHRISTMAS BUYING COMES TO AN END

The Christmas buying was concluded today. The merchants sold a good many goods, notwithstanding the big rush Saturday, which was one of the largest in the history of the city. The holiday trade as a whole was most satisfactory, tho the weather most of the season was not at all conducive to heavy buying. The people had plenty of money and bought the best and choicest goods. All Telegram advertisers were especially well patronized.

Judge Lynch sent Riley Ables to jail Saturday evening for eleven days on a misdemeanor charge.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS.

Dear Old Santa:
I don't care. I would like to have A B C's on it to eat out of it, a bib with B A B Y on it, a rattler, a pacifier, and a big gum ring to cut my teeth on. I'm but thirteen and my stockings are very small. I would like a nursing bottle filled with milk. If there's room to hold them all.

Your little boy,
S. BROOKS KYLE.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl from Wallace, and live now in Adamston with brother, and want you to bring me a rubber dolly I can't break, a set of tin dishes, and a little wee rocking chair, an iron doll bed, candy and nuts and anything else for a little girl who has been real good.

Your little friend,
METTA ROBINSON.

P. S.—Please remember my little friend Louie at Northview, as he is a real good boy, and would like a tin horn so he can play in the new band just organized over there.

N. B.—My little sister Lo wants a few yards of cerise, as Ira has lost his mustache.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want to tell you what I would like for you to bring me Christmas: A bicycle, a merry-go-round on a Chinaman's head, a wheel with pictures on it that goes around and around, a wheel barrow, an Indian suit and a wild west suit, a jumping jack and a Christmas tree, a ship and a hobby horse, a house with animals in it, a sled, a gun and an engine and cars that run on a track. And please bring me some candy and nuts and fruit. And Santa Claus, please don't forget little John. He wants a football and so do I.

Your little friend,
GEORGE OWENS.
811 West Pike street.

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a engine, a track, a drum, and a horn. That is all for me. For my little sister a doll, and for the baby a little toy. Don't forget my papa and mamma.

Your friend,

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl 7 years old. I want you to bring me a doll carriage and a doll that will go to sleep and if you don't think I am asking too much I would like a pair of shoes and some nuts and candy.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, in inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
